PATHOLOGY OF THE HUMAN EYE.

Illustrated in a Series of Coloured Plates, from Original Drawings.

BY JOHN DALRYMPLE, F.R.S., F.R.C.S.

"A work reflecting credit on the profession has been brought to a successful conclusion. Had Mr. Dalrymple's life been spared but a few short months longer, the chorus of praise which now greets the completion of this great work would have fallen gratefully on his ear. The Publisher may well be proud of having issued such a work."

London Journal of Medicine.

"The satisfaction with which we should have announced the completion of this unrivalled work is overclouded by the regret which we feel, in common with all who were acquainted with its distinguished and estimable author, at his early decease. The value of this work can scarcely be over-estimated: it realizes all that we believe it possible for art to effect in the imitation of nature."

British and Foreign Medico-Chirurgical Review.

"It would be unjust to conclude this notice without saying a few words in favour of Mr. Churchill, from whom the profession is receiving, it may be truly said, the most beautiful series of Illustrated Medical Works which has ever been published."

Lancet.

I.

THE ANATOMIST'S VADE-MECUM:

A System of Human Anatomy. With numerous Illustrations on Wood. Fifth Edition. Fcap. 8vo, cloth, 12s. 6d.

"As a satisfactory proof that the praise we bestowed on the first edition of this work was not unmerited, we may observe it has been equally well thought of in foreign countries, having been reprinted in the United States and in Germany. In every respect, this work, as an anatomical guide for the student and the practitioner, merits our warmest and most decided praise."—Medical Gazette.

II.

DISEASES OF THE SKIN:

A Practical and Theoretical Treatise on the Diagnosis, Pathology, and Treatment of Cutaneous Diseases. Third Edition. 8vo, cloth, 12s.

THE SAME WORK; illustrated with finely-executed Engravings on Steel, accurately coloured. 8vo, cloth, 30s.

"The work is very considerably improved in the present edition. Of the plates it is impossible to speak too highly. The representations of the various forms of cutaneous disease are singularly accurate, and the colouring exceeds almost anything we have met with in point of delicacy and finish."—British and Foreign Medical Review.

III.

HEALTHY SKIN:

A Treatise on the Management of the Skin and Hair in relation to Health. Fourth Edition. Fcap. 8vo, 2s. 6d.

"The student will be delighted to find his labours so much facilitated; and a few hours of agreeable society with a most pleasantly-written book will do more to make him acquainted with a class of obscure diseases than all that has been previously written on the subject."—Lancet.

IV.

PORTRAITS OF DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

Folio. Fasciculi I. to XI. Containing Four highly-finished Coloured Plates. 20s. each.

"May be truly designated a splendid performance, surpassing, in the artistic beauty of its delineations, and fully equalling in their fidelity to nature, anything which has yet been brought out in this country, or on the continent. We can scarcely speak too strongly of the merits of this work."—British and Foreign Medical Review.

"We have never before seen a work more beautifully got up, both as regards the typography, and the execution and colouring of the plates. Even Alibert's grand work sinks into the shade when placed by the side of that of Mr. Wilson." —Lancet.

INDEX TO ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE

BRITISH MEDICAL DIRECTORY.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

(From the Observer.)

"That the compilation of such a goodly tome as this has been a task of no ordinary difficulty may be easily believed. It is a new work—a first effort—and the labour has been literally immense. The delay in its publication has been unusual, but that is compensated for by the fact that a Medical Directory without quackery has been produced, and that even in this light alone it is an important production. As it stands, it may bear the test of comparison with the best works of its class in any country. Therefore it can be cordially recommended."

(From the Weekly News and Chronicle.)

"The new Directory (the British) has the further advantage of including in one list the London and Provincial practitioners, which we find to be far more convenient than their separation; and of also comprehending the Scottish list. It also contains a large amount of general information. As to price, also, we decidedly prefer the new Directory."

(From the Morning Advertiser.)

"This Directory contains a quantity of very useful information, statistical and otherwise, on matters of interest to the medical profession."

(From Lloyd's London Weekly Newspaper.)

"The British Medical Directory makes its first appearance for the current year, and is a very formidable rival to the only other existing Medical Directory, the 'London and Provincial.' Possessing many features in common with the older work, it differs from it in giving town and country practitioners in one alphabetical list instead of two. It contains an excellent almanac, and much information for all classes of readers. It is a very creditable production, and deserves the support of every legally-qualified practitioner. It is handsomely got up, and at an extremely moderate price."

(From the Weekly Times.)

"The contents of this Directory are so multifarious, that it would occupy too much space to enumerate them all. There is a great deal of valuable information about the profession, and it is a book that ought to be in the hands, not only of medical practitioners, but of the public generally."

(From the Spectator.)

"The list of all town and country practitioners is alphabetical; there is various collateral information, as lists of Poor-law Medical Officers, Hospitals and Medical Schools, &c.; with an Obituary. The volume also contains a good deal of general matter."

(From the Britannia.)

"This is the first number of a most important publication, and we heartily wish it may have the success its great practical utility deserves."

(From the Weekly Dispatch.)

"It contains an enormous amount of information, direct and indirect, tables of statistics, agencies, and so on, ad infinitum; and it would puzzle a tolerably conversant man to show rather what it lacked than what there was redundant, since all its contents appear to have a decisive reference to the original purpose of its appearance."

(From the Medical Times and Gazette.)

"The new Directory, (the British Medical,) we feel it our duty to state, is a very creditable production. It is published at a very cheap rate. A great amount of useful and interesting matter is presented to the reader upon many points bearing directly and indirectly upon the interests of the medical profession."

OPINIONS OF THE PROFESSION.

SELECTIONS FROM THE OPINIONS EXPRESSED BY MEMBERS OF THE PROFESSION OF THE HIGHEST REPUTATION AND INFLUENCE.

Bristol, Feb. 25*th*, 1853.

"Only one opinion existed here relative to the necessity that was felt for the publication of such a work as the British Medical Directory; and now that it has arrived, the satisfaction that it has afforded is immense. With a Directory of this kind attainable at a cost that is marvellously moderate, the one which has so long insulted and injured us will not be again seen on our tables. As the Editors of the British Medical Directory, you are entitled to our warmest support and gratitude."

Taunton, Feb. 26*th*, 1853.

"The practice of garnishing the names of the infamous quacks in the London and Provincial Medical Directory with grand distinctions and fraudulent titles was insulting to regular practitioners—it was worse—it was calculated to work out a deception in the public mind by confounding honourable men with knaves. The British Medical Directory gives a death-blow to this infamous system."

Leeds, Feb. 28*th*, 1853.

"Guided by correct professional objects, you have produced a beautiful Directory at only a fraction more than half the price of the one that has taken so discreditable a position. The plan of the British Medical Directory is perfect, and the work is sure to receive the hearty and active support of the Profession."

Edinburgh, March 1st, 1853.

"The plan of the British Medical Directory is perfect. Londoners, Provincialists, and Scots are here all arranged together, in alphabetical order, as members of one great professional body. Nothing could be better, and yet the price is only half the cost of the Directory that has so grossly outraged the feelings of the Profession."

Manchester, March 7th, 1853.

"Most truly may it be said that the British Medical Directory has not appeared too soon. The want of such an orthodox Directory was felt by all, and by none more than by the members of the Medico-Ethical Society of this City. We all thought that the London and Provincial Directory was doing great mischief. The distinctions and titles given to the quacks in that publication could not fail to be disgusting and insulting to every respectable practitioner. Collectively and individually our utmost efforts will be made to promote the circulation of the British Medical Directory."

Exeter, March 10th, 1853.

"A greater service could not have been rendered to the respectable portion of the Profession than by the publication of the British Medical Directory. The plan of the work furnishes a keen edge that at a touch annihilates the pretensions of a class of infamous quacks. The British Medical Directory ought to be, and it will, and must be, in the hands of every regular Medical Practitioner in the kingdom.

Taunton, March 14th, 1853.

"If the Profession neglected to afford the most active and energetic support to the Editors of the British Medical Directory, their own injury would have been a deserved punishment for such suicidal supineness. The London and Provincial Medical Directory has exhibited the names of the quacks ornamented with so many flashy titles that the work has done much mischief to regular practitioners, while it has advanced the interests of a set of audacious knaves."

Birmingham, Oct. 4th, 1853.

"If the Profession had known that the London and Provincial Medical Directory had been the exclusive property of a notorious advertiser, and was entirely under the control of that person, it would never have found its way amongst the respectable ranks of our body. That such a production should favour the quacks was quite natural. If it effect any further mischief, or should it even be published at all in 1855, the fault and the disgrace will lie at our own doors, or rather on our own tables."

Bath, October 11th, 1853.

"In the relation of poison and antidote, the London and Provincial Medical Directory and the British Medical Directory are now presented to the Profession. The choice is not perplexing. But we must not only select—we must exclude, and everywhere denounce the poisonous work. It is in the power of the Profession to give to the legitimate guide a very great circulation. It is equally in our power to restrict within the most confined limits the circulation of a book whose proprietor states that he has been obliged to omit the titles of the quacks with a view to obtain support by gratifying the 'depraved appetite' of the Profession! Any directory published by such a party ought to be kept out of the house of every regular practitioner, and also out of every place where his influence extends. It is certain that if the British Medical Directory were to be relinquished, we should be again insulted and injured as before."

Liverpool, October 21st, 1853.

"Anything more worthy in the form of a medical directory I have never beheld—plan, execution, form, contents, appearance and price, all claim for the BRITISH MEDICAL DIRECTORY the most strenuous and undivided support of the Profession.

Macclesfield, October 28th, 1853.

"A greater insult to the Profession was never penned, and this, too, from an advertising aurist. At last, the gaudy titles and distinctions of the quacks have been expunged (since the publication of the BRITISH MEDICAL DIRECTORY, be it noticed,) in the hope of keeping up a little sale by satisfying the 'depraved appetite' of the Profession. To reward such a man by allowing him to make a profit out of us would be voluntarily courting our own shame and degradation."

London, December 17th, 1853.

"Most likely you have seen that in a note from MR. JOHN CHURCHILL, the medical publisher, of Princes-street, he admits that his sale of the London and Provincial Medical Directory, for 1853 was three hundred and thirty-four copies. This admission is dated December 12, 1853, and is signed 'John Churchill.' What will the advertisers in the London and Provincial Medical Directory say to this? It is known to you, of course, that Mr. Churchill has not any share or interest whatever in the copyright of the expiring directory."

An Extract from our own Announcement of "THE BRITISH MEDICAL DIRECTORY."

"The Editors of THE BRITISH MEDICAL DIRECTORY feel infinite pleasure in announcing, that in consequence of the great success of that work, the Proprietors have authorised them to state that ONE-HALF of the profits arising from the Publication will be handed over to Mr. PROPERT, the Treasurer of the MEDICAL BENEVOLENT COLLEGE, as a Contribution to the FUNDS of that noble institution.

"The Profession having by their powerful and universal patronage and assistance completely identified themselves with the principles and success of THE BRITISH MEDICAL DIRECTORY, the allocation of a moiety of the Profits arising from its Publication is made as a free and graceful offering in aid of an establishment which is dedicated to the noblest of charitable purposes.

"The Editors of this Directory consider it right to make the Profession acquainted with the fact that the compilers of The London and Provincial Medical Directory have just made the following admission in reply to a letter of complaint that had been addressed to them by one of the globulist practitioners:—

"'We have omitted the appointments and the publications because the Profession declared they would not support the 'Directory' if these obnoxious addenda were inserted; BUT IT WAS CONTRARY TO OUR JUDGMENT, and WE MUST ADMIT IT WAS CONTRARY TO THE PROFESSED OBJECTS OF 'THE DIRECTORY.' . . . . . The doctor must look upon us only as caterers for the Profession, subject to dismissal and defeat IF WE DO NOT SATISFY THE APPETITES, WHETHER DEPRAVED OR OTHERWISE, of our supporters.'—EDITORS OF THE MEDICAL DIRECTORIES.

"Thus it is perfectly evident that if THE BRITISH MEDICAL DIRECTORY were not in the field, The London and Provincial Medical Directory would again contain the titles, distinctions, and public appointments of all the quacks in the kingdom.

Regulations. In Medicine, all students (besides undergoing the two examinations appointed for Bachelors of Arts) are examined in the Theory and Practice of Medicine, Anatomy, Physiology, and Pathology; in Materia Medica, and in Chemistry and Botany, so far as they illustrate the science of Medicine; and in two at least of the following ancient medical writers—Hippocrates, Aretæus, Galen, and Celsus.—For a Doctor's Degree in Medicine, a dissertation upon some subject, to be approved of by the Regius Professor of Medicine, is to be publicly recited in the Schools, and a copy of it afterwards delivered to the professor. Medical Examinations take place in Act Term every year.

Chancellor, Prince Albert, LL.D.—High Steward, Lord Lyndhurst, LL.D.—Vice-Chancellor, James Pulling, B.D.—Registrar, Rev. J. Romilly, M.A.

Professors—Regius Professor of Physic: H. J. H. Bond, M.D. Professor of Chemistry: James Cumming, M.A., F.R.S. Professor of Anatomy: William Clark, M.D. Professor of Botany: Rev. J. S. Henslow, M.A., F.L.S. Downing Professor of Medicine: W. W. Fisher, M.D. Linacre Lecturer of Physic: G. E. Paget, M.D.

Regulations. M.B.—A student, before he can become a Bachelor of Physic, must have entered on his sixth year, computed from the date of his first admission at the University, have resided nine terms, and have passed the previous examination, which is of a kind similar to that in the University of London.

The examination in Chemistry and Botany may take place after the expiration of three years from his first admission at the University; that in Anatomy and Medicine after the expiration of four years.

The exercises for this degree are one Act and one Opponency (academical disputations).

Note.—In the Act, two questions or subjects for discussion are proposed; the first by the respondent or candidate, the second by the professor. After the thesis has been read by the respondent, the opponent, who is a candidate for the same degree, is called by the professor to bring forward arguments against the propositions of the thesis. If there be no opponent, the arguments are propounded by the professor. The annual public assembly for conferring degrees, called at Oxford the "Act," is named at Cambridge the "Commencement." The name of Act applies, therefore, to proceedings at the two universities which are not identical.

L.M.—Candidates for a licence ad practicandum in Medicinâ, being previously Bachelors of Physic, are required to produce certificates of their having attended hospital practice for three years, exclusive of the nine terms which they kept by residence for the degree of Bachelor of Physic, and of their having attended lectures on the following subjects—viz., Practice of Physic and Pathology, Anatomy and Physiology, Chemistry, Botany, Medical Jurisprudence, Materia Medica and Pharmacy, Principles of Surgery, Principles of Midwifery, Practical Anatomy—for two seasons.

Every candidate for a licence ad practicandum in Medicinâ is required to pass an examination of the Regius Professor of Physic, the Professor of Anatomy, the Downing Professor of Medicine, and a Doctor of Physic, to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor, and approved by the senate. There are two such examinations in every year.

This licence gives the privilege of practising medicine in any part of the United Kingdom, except in London and within seven miles thereof, for which the diploma or licence of the College of Physicians is necessary.

M.D.—The degree of Doctor of Physic is granted to a Bachelor of Physic of five years', or to a Master of Arts of seven years' standing. The exercises for this degree are two Acts and one Opponency.

Every candidate for the degree of Doctor of Physic is required to produce the same certificates, and pass the same examination, as are required in the case of candidates for a licence ad practicandum in Medicinâ.

The undertaking of the Society is the establishment of a Medical Benevolent College, which will include:—

First,—An Asylum, in which 100 pensioners, who must be duly qualified Medical Men, or their Widows, (possessing incomes of at least £15 a year,) shall be provided with three furnished rooms each, and with such additional assistance and accommodation as the funds may permit. The council, however, confidently hope, that the Society will be enabled wholly to support some few deserving persons not possessed of the required income.

Secondly,—A School, in which a liberal education will be given to 100 boys, the sons of duly qualified Medical Men; the majority of whom will pay £25 a year each for education, board, lodging, and washing; while the rest will be Orphans educated and maintained entirely at the expense of the Society.

There will be a Chapel for Divine Worship.

The outlay for a site and building, including fittings and furniture, is estimated at £20,000. The whole yearly expenditure in providing suitable allowances to the pensioners, in the remuneration of officers, and in other establishment charges, is calculated at £1500.

This Society was formed in the year 1778, by Dr. Thomas Denman, Dr. Richard Dennison, Dr. Andrew Douglas, Dr. John Sims, Dr. J. Squire, Mr. William Chamberlain, and Mr. Thomas Randall, with the object of establishing a fund for relief of those Widows and Orphans of deceased Members who might need and be deserving of assistance.

The Society's affairs are managed by a President, twelve Vice-Presidents, three Treasurers, and Twenty-four Directors, who are elected by the Members annually, and whose services are gratuitous.

The permanent efficiency of the Society depends on the maintenance of a due proportion between the available income and the claims made on the funds. Computations have been made by experienced actuaries on points susceptible of calculation by way of average.

The proportion of Members whose families may become claimants for relief, scarcely admits of calculation; but the experience of sixty years has proved the wisdom and benevolence with which the Society was planned, and the prudence and efficiency with which its affairs have been conducted.

The Society is enrolled among Friendly Societies: the capital stock is invested in government securities, chiefly with the National Debt Commissioners, and amounts to more than 50,000*l.* More than 44,000*l.* has been distributed among persons eligible to receive relief.

106 Widows and 164 Children have been relieved since 1793. 35 Widows and 24 Children are now receiving relief, which amounts to 1600*l.* per annum. The Society contains—Life Members, 220; Annual Subscribers, 149—Total, 369.

A General Meeting of the Members is held twice a year—viz., in April and October.

A Court of Directors is held on the first Wednesday in the months of March, June, September, and December, when Members are admitted by Ballot.

All legally qualified Medical Practitioners residing in any part of the County of Middlesex, or within seven miles of the General Post Office, St. Martin's-le-Grand, are eligible as Members.

The Secretary attends every Wednesday from four to five P.M., at the Office of the Society, 53, Berners-street. Laws, Lists, and Forms of Proposals may be obtained at any time on personal application; or they will be forwarded on enclosing a postage-stamp for each.

apothecary, such physician, surgeon, or apothecary shall once at the least in every two weeks make an entry in a book to be kept for that purpose, to be called "The Medical Journal," of the condition of the patient's health, both mental and bodily, together with the date of such entry, and such book shall be produced to the Visiting Commissioner on every visit, and shall be signed by him as having been so produced, and every such physician, surgeon, or apothecary who shall make an untrue entry in the said book shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

LXV. Power for medical persons, guardians, and overseers of unions and parishes, to visit pauper patients of such unions and parishes confined in any asylum.—Any physician, surgeon, or apothecary to be appointed by the guardians of any union or parish or the overseers of any parish, and also the guardians of any union or parish, and the overseers of any parish, shall be permitted, whenever they see fit, between the hours of eight in the morning and six in the evening, to visit and examine any or every pauper lunatic chargeable to such union or parish confined in any asylum, registered hospital, or licensed house: Provided always, that if the medical officer of any asylum be of opinion that it will be injurious to any lunatic to permit such visit and examination, and such medical officer state in writing the reasons why such lunatic should not be visited and examined, and sign such statement, and deliver the same to the person or persons so requiring to visit and examine such lunatic, then and in such case it shall be lawful for such medical officer to refuse such visit and examination; and in every such case such medical officer shall forthwith enter in the medical journal the reasons set forth in such statement for such refusal, and shall sign such entry.

LXVI. Every pauper lunatic not in an asylum, registered hospital, or licensed house, to be visited once a quarter by the medical officer of the parish or union, and lists of such lunatics to be sent to Commissioners in Lunacy.—Every pauper lunatic not in an asylum, or a hospital registered or a house licensed, for the reception of lunatics, shall be visited once in every quarter of a year (reckoning the several quarters of the year as ending on the thirty-first day of March, the thirtieth day of June, the thirtieth day of September, and the thirty-first day of December,) by the medical officer of or for the parish or union or district of a parish or union in which such lunatic is resident; and such medical officer shall be paid the sum of two shillings and sixpence for each such quarterly visit to any pauper not being in a workhouse, which sum shall be paid by the same persons, and be charged to the same account as the relief of such pauper; and within seven days after the end of every such quarter such medical officer shall prepare and sign a list according to the form in the schedule (E.) to this Act of all such lunatics, and shall state therein whether in the opinion of such medical officer all or any of such lunatics are or are not properly taken care of, and may or may not properly remain out of an asylum, and such medical officer shall within the time aforesaid deliver or send such list to the clerk to the guardians of such parish or union, or if such parish be not under a Board of Guardians to one of the overseers thereof; and the forms for such lists shall be from time to time furnished to the medical officer of every parish under a Board of Guardians, and to the medical officers of every union, by the guardians of such parish or union; but nothing in this enactment shall be taken or construed to relieve any medical officer from any obligation by this Act imposed upon him to give notice to a relieving officer or overseer where it appears to such medical officer that any pauper lunatic ought to be sent to an asylum; and such clerk or overseer receiving any such list as aforesaid shall, within three days after the receipt thereof, transmit the same to the Commissioners in Lunacy, and a copy thereof to the clerk to the visitors of the asylum for the county or borough in which the parish or union for which he is clerk or overseer is situate; and every such medical officer, clerk, or overseer failing to comply with this enactment shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds nor under two pounds.

LXVII. Provision for sending pauper lunatics to asylums.—Every medical officer of a parish or union who shall have knowledge that any pauper resident in such parish, or in any parish within the district of such medical officer, is or is deemed to be a lunatic, and a proper person to be sent to an asylum, shall within three days after obtaining such knowledge give notice thereof in writing to a relieving officer of such parish, or if there is no relieving officer then to one of the overseers of such parish, and every relieving officer of any parish within a union or under a Board of Guardians, and every overseer of a parish of which there is no relieving officer, who shall have knowledge, either by such notice or otherwise, that any pauper resident in such parish is or is deemed to be a lunatic, and a proper person to be sent to an asylum, shall within three days after obtaining such knowledge give notice thereof to some justice of the county or borough within which such parish is situate; and thereupon the said justice shall, by an order under his hand and seal, require such relieving officer or overseer to bring such pauper before him, or some other justice of the said county or borough, at such time and place within three days from the time of such notice being given to such justice as shall be appointed by the said order; and the said justice before whom such pauper shall be brought shall call to his assistance a physician, surgeon, or apothecary, and examine such person; and if such physician, surgeon, or apothecary shall sign a certificate with respect to such pauper, according to the form in Schedule (F.) No. 3. to this Act annexed, and such justice be satisfied, upon view, or personal examination of such pauper or other proof, that such pauper is a lunatic, and a proper person to be taken charge of and detained under care and treatment, he shall by an order under his hand according to the form in the said Schedule (F.) No. 1. to this Act annexed, direct such pauper to be received into such asylum as herein-after mentioned, or, wherein-after authorized in this behalf, into some hospital registered or some house duly licensed for the reception of lunatics; and such relieving officer or overseer shall immediately convey or cause the said lunatic to be conveyed to such asylum, hospital, or house, and such lunatic shall be received and detained therein: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any justice, upon notice being given to him as aforesaid, or upon his own knowledge, without any such notice as aforesaid, to examine any pauper deemed to be lunatic at his own abode or elsewhere, and to proceed in all respects as if such pauper were brought before him in pursuance of an order for that purpose; provided also, that in case any pauper deemed to be lunatic cannot, on account of his health or other cause, be conveniently taken before any justice, such pauper may be examined at his own abode or elsewhere by an officiating clergyman of the parish in which he is resident, together with a relieving officer, or if there be no relieving officer an overseer of such parish, and such officiating clergyman, together with such relieving officer or overseer, shall call to their assistance a physician, surgeon, or apothecary; and if such physician, surgeon, or apothecary shall sign a certificate with respect to such pauper according to the said form in the said Schedule (F.) No. 3, and if upon view or examination of such pauper such officiating clergyman and such relieving officer or overseer be satisfied that such pauper is a lunatic, and a proper person to be taken charge of and detained under care and treatment, such officiating clergyman, together with such overseer or relieving officer, shall, by an order under their hands according to the said form in the said Schedule (F.) No. 1, direct such pauper to be received into such asylum as herein-after mentioned, or, where herein-after authorized in this behalf, into some such registered hospital or licensed house as aforesaid, and such relieving officer or overseer shall immediately convey or cause such pauper to be conveyed to such asylum, hospital, or house, and such pauper shall be received and detained therein; provided also, that if the physician, surgeon, or apothecary by whom any such pauper shall be examined shall certify in writing that he is not in a fit state to be removed, his removal shall be suspended until the same or some other physician, surgeon, or apothecary shall certify in writing that he is fit to be removed; and every such physician, surgeon, and apothecary is required to give such last-mentioned certificate as soon as in his judgment it ought to be given; provided also, that where a certificate in the form in the said Schedule (F.) No. 3, is signed by the medical officer of the parish or union in which the pauper named therein is resident, as well as by some other person being a physician, surgeon, or apothecary called to the assistance of the justice or clergyman and overseer or relieving officer, as herein-before mentioned, such joint certificate, or such two certificates (as the case may be), shall be received by the justice or clergyman and overseer or relieving officer by whom such person is examined as herein-before mentioned as conclusive evidence that the person named therein is a lunatic, and a proper person to be taken charge of and detained under care and treatment, and he or they shall make an order in the form in the said Schedule (F.) No. 1. accordingly.

Clause LXVIII. Provides that if any person deemed to be a lunatic is wandering at large, not properly taken care of or cruelly treated, any constable, relieving officer or overseer may apprehend and take such person before a justice of the peace, and such justice shall either himself visit and examine such person and make inquiry into the matters so appearing upon such information, or by an order under his hand and seal direct and authorize some physician, surgeon, or apothecary to visit and examine such person, and make such inquiry, and to report in writing to such justice his opinion thereupon; and in case upon such personal visit, examination, and inquiry by such justice, or upon the report of such physician, surgeon, or apothecary, it appear to such justice that such person is a lunatic, and is not under proper care and control, or is cruelly treated or neglected by any relative or other person having the care or charge of him, it shall be lawful for such justice, by an order under his hand and seal, to require any constable of the parish or place, or any relieving officer or overseer of the parish, where such person is alleged to be, to bring him before any two justices of the same county or borough; and the justice or justices (as the case may be) before whom any such person as aforesaid in the respective cases aforesaid is brought, under this enactment, shall call to his or their assistance a physician, surgeon, or apothecary, and shall examine such person, and make such inquiry relative to such person as he or they shall deem necessary; and if the allegation be substantiated and if such physician, surgeon, or apothecary sign a certificate with respect to every such person so brought either before one justice or two justices according to the form in the Schedule (F.) No. 3. to this Act, it shall be lawful for the said justice or justices, by an order under his or their hand and seal or hands and seals, according to the form in the Schedule (F.) No. 1. to this Act, to direct such person to be received into such asylum as herein-after mentioned. Furthermore it shall be lawful for any justice, upon such information on oath as aforesaid, or upon his own knowledge, and alone, in the case of any such person as aforesaid wandering at large and deemed to be a lunatic, or with some other justice, in any other of the cases aforesaid, to examine the person deemed to be a lunatic, at his own abode or elsewhere, and to proceed in all respects as if such person were brought before him or them as herein-before mentioned; provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said justice or justices to suspend the execution of any such order for removing any such person as aforesaid to any asylum, hospital, or house for such period not exceeding fourteen days as he or they may deem meet, and in the meantime to give such directions or make such arrangements for the proper care and control of such person as he or they shall consider necessary; provided also, that if the physician, surgeon, or apothecary by whom such person is examined certify in writing that he is not in a fit state to be removed, the removal of such person shall be suspended until the same or some other physician, surgeon, or apothecary certify in writing that such person is fit to be removed; and every such physician, surgeon, and apothecary is hereby required to give such last-mentioned certificate as soon as in his judgment it ought to be given; provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to restrain or prevent any relation or friend from retaining or taking such lunatic under his own care, if such relation or friend shall satisfy the justice or justices before whom such lunatic shall be brought, or the visitors of the asylum in which such lunatic is or is intended to be placed, that such lunatic will be properly taken care of.

LXIX. Power to justices to order payment of a fee to any physician, &c. called in to examine any person.—It shall be lawful for any justice or justices causing any person to be examined by any physician, surgeon, or apothecary, under the provisions herein-before contained, if he or they think fit so to do, to make an order under his or their hand and seal or hands and seals upon the guardians of the union or parish or the overseers of the parish to which such person is chargeable, under the provisions herein contained, for the payment of such reasonable remuneration to any such physician, surgeon, or apothecary, for the examination of such person, and of all other reasonable expenses in or about the examination of such person, and the bringing him before such justice or justices, and in case he be ordered to be conveyed to any asylum, registered hospital, or licensed house, of conveying him thereto, as to such justice or justices may seem proper.

LXX. Penalties on medical officers, overseers, &c. omitting to give notice as aforesaid.—If any medical officer of any parish or union omit for more than three days after obtaining knowledge of any pauper resident in such parish, or in any parish within his district, being or being deemed to be a lunatic, and a proper person to be sent to an asylum, to give such notice thereof as is herein-before required, or if any relieving officer of any parish, or any overseer of any parish of which there is no relieving officer, omit for more than three days after obtaining knowledge of any pauper resident in such parish being deemed to be a lunatic, and a proper person to be sent to an asylum, to give notice thereof to a justice as herein-before required, or if any constable, relieving officer, or overseer omit to apprehend and take before a justice, as herein-before required, any person wandering at large and deemed to be a lunatic, or omit for three days after obtaining knowledge that any person deemed to be a lunatic (not a pauper and not wandering at large) is not under proper care and control, or is cruelly treated or neglected by any person having the care or charge of him, to give information thereof to a justice as herein-before required, such medical officer, relieving officer, overseer, or constable, as the case may be, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

LXXIII. No pauper to be received into any asylum without a certain order and certificate.—No pauper shall be received into any asylum, registered hospital, or licensed house (save under the provisions herein contained with respect to removal of lunatics) without an order according to the form required in the said Schedule (F.) No. 1, under the hands of one justice, or under the hands of an officiating clergyman, and of one of the overseers or the relieving officer of the parish or union from which such pauper is sent as aforesaid, together with such statement of particulars as is contained in the same Schedule, nor without a medical certificate according to the form in the said Scehdule (F.) No. 3, signed by one physician, surgeon, or apothecary, who shall have personally examined him not more than seven clear days previously to his reception; and every person who receives any pauper into any asylum without such order and medical certificate (save under any of the said provisions) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

LXXIV. No person to be received into an asylum, except under the provisions of this Act, without an order and two medical certificates.—No person, not a pauper, shall be received into any asylum (save under the provisions herein contained) without an order under the hand of some person according to the form in Schedule (F.) No. 2. to this Act annexed, together with such statement of particulars as is contained in the same Schedule, nor without the medical certificate, according to the form and containing the particulars required in Schedule (F.) No. 3. annexed to this Act, of two persons, each of whom shall be a physician, surgeon, or apothecary, and shall not be in partnership with or an assistant to the other, and each of whom shall separately from the other have personally examined the person to whom it relates, not more than seven clear days previously to the reception of such person into such asylum, and such order as aforesaid may be signed before or after the medical certificates or either of them; and every person who receives any person, not a pauper, into any asylum, save under the provisions herein contained, without such order and medical certificates as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided always, nevertheless, that any person may, under special circumstances, preventing the examination of such person by two medical practitioners as aforesaid, be received into any asylum upon the certificate of one physician, surgeon, or apothecary alone, provided that the statement accompanying such order set forth the special circumstances which prevent the examination of such person by two medical practitioners; but in every such case two other such certificates shall, within three clear days after the reception of such patient into such asylum, be signed by two other persons, each of whom shall be a physician, surgeon, or apothecary, not in partnership with or an assistant to the other, or the physician, surgeon, or apothecary who signed the certificate on which the patient was received, and shall within such time, and separately from the other of them, have personally examined the person so received as a lunatic; and any person who, having received any person into any asylum as aforesaid upon the certificate of one medical practitioner alone as aforesaid, shall keep or permit such person to remain in such asylum beyond the said period of three clear days, without such further certificates as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

LXXV. Medical certificate to specify facts upon which opinion of insanity has been formed.—Every physician, surgeon, and apothecary signing any certificate under or for the purposes of this Act, shall specify therein the facts upon which he has formed his opinion that the person to whom the certificate relates is a lunatic, an idiot, or a person of unsound mind, distinguishing in such certificate facts observed by himself from facts communicated to him by others; and no person shall be received into any asylum under any certificate which purports to be founded only upon facts communicated by others.

LXXVI. Who not to sign certificate for reception of a patient.—No physician, surgeon, or apothecary who, or whose father, brother, son, partner, or assistant, shall sign the order for the reception of a patient, shall sign any certificate for the reception of the same patient, and no patient shall be received into any asylum upon or under any certificate signed by any medical officer of such asylum.

LXXXVII. Orders and medical certificates may be amended.—If after the reception of any lunatic into any asylum it appear that the order or the medical certificate, or (if more than one) both or either of the medical certificates, upon which he was received, is or are in any respect incorrect or defective, such order or medical certificate or certificates may be amended by the person or persons signing the same at any time within fourteen days next after the reception of such lunatic; provided nevertheless, that no such amendment shall have any force or effect unless the same shall receive the sanction of one or more of the Commissioners in Lunacy.

XC. Weekly journal and case book to be kept in every asylum.—In every asylum the medical officer thereof shall once in every week enter in a book to be kept for that purpose, to be called "The Medical Journal," a statement according to the form in the said Schedule (G.) No. 3, showing the number of patients of each sex then in such asylums, the Christian name and surname of every patient who is or has been under restraint or in seclusion since the last entry, and when and for what period and reasons, and in case of restraint by what means, and the Christian name and surname of every patient under medical treatment, and for what, if any, bodily disorder, and every death, injury, and violence which shall have happened to or affected any patient since the then last preceding entry, and shall also enter into a book to be called "The Case Book," as soon as may be after the admission of any patient, the mental state and bodily condition of every patient at the time of his admission, and also the history from time to time of his case whilst he shall continue in the asylum.

CXXII. Medical men signing false certificates, and persons not being medical men giving certificates as such, guilty of misdemeanor.—Any physician, surgeon, or apothecary who shall sign any certificate contrary to any of the provisions herein contained shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds; and any physician, surgeon, or apothecary who shall falsely state or certify anything in any certificate under this Act, and any person who shall sign any certificate under this Act, in which he shall be described as a physician, surgeon, or apothecary, not being a physician, surgeon, or apothecary respectively within the meaning of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

CXXXIV. Commencement of Act.—This Act shall commence and come into operation on the first day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

II. Parents and guardians of children born after the 1*st August* 1853 to have such children vaccinated within three or four months after birth.—The father or mother of every child born in England or Wales after the first day of August in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three shall within three calendar months after the birth of the said child, or in the event of the death, illness, absence, or inability of the father and mother, then the person who shall have the care, nurture, or custody of the said child, shall within four calendar months after the birth of such child take or cause to be taken the said child to the medical officer or practitioner appointed in the union or parish in which the said child is resident according to the provisions of the first-recited Act for the purpose of being vaccinated, unless he shall have been previously vaccinated by some duly qualified medical practitioner, and the vaccination duly certified, and the said medical officer or practitioner so appointed shall and he is hereby required thereupon, or as soon after as it may conveniently and properly be done, to vaccinate the said child.

IV. Certificate of successful vaccination to be delivered.—Upon and immediately after the successful vaccination of any child the medical officer or practitioner who shall have performed the operation shall deliver to the father or mother of the said child, or to the person who shall have the care, nurture, or custody of the said child, a certificate under his hand, according to the form of Schedule herein-after inserted, marked (A.), that the said child has been successfully vaccinated, and shall also transmit a duplicate of the said certificate to the Registrar of Births and Deaths of the sub-district in which the operation was performed; and such certificate shall, without further proof, be admissible as evidence of the successful vaccination of such child in any information or complaint which shall be brought against the father or mother of the said child, or against the person who shall have had the care, nurture, or custody of such child as aforesaid, for non-compliance with the provisions of this Act.

V. If the child be not in a fit state for vaccination, the medical officer to deliver a certificate to that effect, to be in force for two months.—If any medical officer or practitioner shall be of opinion that any child is not in a fit and proper state to be successfully vaccinated, he shall thereupon and immediately deliver, without fee or reward, to the father or mother of such child, or the person having the care, nurture, or custody of the said child, a certificate under his hand according to the form of Schedule herein-after inserted, marked (B.), that the child is in an unfit state for successful vaccination, and such certificate shall remain in force for two calendar months from its delivery as aforesaid; and the father or mother of the said child, or the person having the care, nurture, or custody of the said child, shall, unless they shall within each succeeding period of two months have obtained from a medical officer or practitioner a renewal of such certificate, within two months next after the delivery of the said certificate as aforesaid, and if the said child be not vaccinated at or by the termination of such period of two months then during each succeeding period of two calendar months until such child has been successfully vaccinated, take or cause to be taken to the said medical officer or practitioner such child to be vaccinated by him; and if the said medical officer or practitioner deem the said child to be then in a fit and proper state for successful vaccination, he shall forthwith vaccinate it accordingly, and shall deliver to the father or mother of such child, or person having the care, nurture, or custody of such child, a certificate under his hand according to the form of Schedule herein-after inserted, marked (A.), that such child has been successfully vaccinated; but if the said medical officer or practitioner be of opinion that the child is still in an unfit state for successful vaccination, then he shall again deliver to the father or mother of such child, or person having the care, nurture, or custody of the said child, a certificate under his hand, according to the said form of Schedule (B.), that the child is still in an unfit state for successful vaccination; and the said medical officer or practitioner, so long as such child remains in an unfit state for vaccination, and un-vaccinated, shall at the expiration of every succeeding period of two calendar months deliver, if required, to the said father or mother of such child, or person having the care, nurture, or custody of such child, a fresh certificate under his hand according to the said form of Schedule; and the production of such certificate shall be a sufficient defence against any complaint which shall be brought against the said father or mother, or person having the care, nurture, or custody of such child for non-compliance with the provisions of this Act.

OBITUARY.

ANDERSON, JAMES, Medical Inspector of Hospitals and Fleets, died at Haslar Hospital, April 10.

ARTHUR, JOHN, M.D., Deputy Inspector-General of Army Hospitals. On the 18th of July, at his residence, Church-road, De Beauvoir-square, aged 70.

ATTWOOD, JOHN, on board the Albemarle, on her passage to Sydney, N. S. Wales, April 7, aged 22. This gentleman was only admitted a member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England the preceding November, and was a young man of great promise.

AINSWORTH, JAMES, died October 28, at his residence, Higher Broughton, Manchester, aged 70. The deceased was the Consulting Surgeon to the Manchester Royal Infirmary, and a member of several local societies.

BYNE, HENRY THOMAS LUCAS, formerly of Marlborough, died June 20, at the early age of 32, at Hammersmith. The deceased was admitted a member of the Royal College of Surgeons on the 14th of July, 1851.

BARLOW, WILLIAM FREDERICK. This most estimable member of the profession expired, after a very short illness, at the residence of his father, Writtle, Essex, on the 24th of June, aged 36. Mr. Barlow was educated at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, where he obtained Mr. Lawrence's first prize in Surgery, Dr. Rigby's first prize in Midwifery, Dr. Hall's first prize in Medicine, and Mr. Stanley's in Anatomy. After passing his examination at the Royal College of Surgeons, on the 19th of January, 1838, he was elected House-Surgeon to the Tunbridge Wells Dispensary. In 1848 he was elected Apothecary to the Westminster Hospital, where he soon obtained the confidence of the physicians and surgeons, and the greatest respect of the students. The deceased was the author of some valuable papers in the various medical journals. It is to be regretted that some vexatious and irritating regulations of the hospital authorities, then just introduced, caused considerable annoyance and excitement in the nervous system, making him a fit recipient for the seeds of fever, which carried him off at the above early age. Mr. Barlow had been elected a "Fellow" of the college only a few weeks preceding his death.

BRUCE, SAMUEL BARWICK, M.D., of Ripon, Yorkshire, died suddenly, December 24th, in Victoria-square, Grosvenor-place, aged 66. Dr. Bruce entered the medical department of the army in 1804, but some of his earliest service was afloat, under the immortal Nelson, in 1805-7: he was present at the capture of the Danish islands of St. Thomas, St. John, and St. Croix; and he subsequently served at the siege of Fort Desaix, Martinique, at the capture of Guadaloupe, as well as at the capture of the adjacent islands, in 1810. Dr. Bruce served in the Peninsula in 1813, in America in 1814 and 1815, and was present at the severe actions before New Orleans in January, 1815; at the capture of Fort Boyer, &c.; for these engagements he had received medals and clasps. He joined the army in the Netherlands under the Duke of Wellington, in May, 1815; was present at Waterloo, and at the subsequent capture of Paris. The deceased was admitted a member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England on the 20th May, 1814, and L.S.A. soon after.

Eng. 1824, and L.S.A. 1823, was the Resident Surgeon to the Witney Lunatic Asylum, and Surgeon to the Union Workhouse, and was so highly respected by all classes, that, at a meeting held soon after his death, a subscription was opened to raise a monument to his memory, "as a lasting testimony of gratitude for his long and eminent professional services to themselves, their families, and the poor, and a memorial of their personal esteem and regard."

BROWNE, Robert, at Dinapore, March 15. The deceased was Superintending Surgeon of the Dinapore Division.

BIRCH, William Richard, at the residence of his brother-in-law, Frederick Wood, Esq., St. Bartholomew's Hospital, on the 8th of May, at the early age of 20, of typhus fever, caught in the discharge of his duty as Clinical Clerk. CHAMBERS, Richard, M.D., of Wimpole-street. This gentleman was found dead in his bed on the morning of April 6, having taken prussic acid. Dr. Chambers was an M.D. Edin. 1838, L.R.C.S. 1849, Senior Physician to the Royal Free Hospital, Physician to the Cancer Hospital, to the Blenheim-street Dispensary, and to the Dispensary for Consumption and Diseases of the Chest.

COOPER, Bransby Blake, F.R.S. This most amiable member of the profession expired suddenly, at the Athenæum Club, on August 11th, in the 61st year of his age. His friends had for several months previously been painfully aware of the existence of a malignant affection, his sufferings from which were most acute, but which were borne in a manly and becoming manner. It was painful to see Mr. Cooper struggle against the inroads of malignant disease, and the debility and prostration consequent upon it; it was sad to see him but a few days before his decease strive to do his duty at Guy's Hospital, and faint in the wards in the attempt to fulfil the task to the last. From the post-mortem examination it appeared that at the root of the tongue and most on its right side, was a deep excavation, covered over by the cortex of the organ, which seemed to form flaps to the hollow; around this excavation the tissues of the tongue itself, as well as the muscles about the os hyoides, were infiltrated with carcinoma. Several enlarged lymphated glands existed upon the right side of the neck, all infiltrated with carcinoma. In the cavity which existed in the tongue there were a few clots of blood, and as this was the only ulcerated surface, it may be presumed that the hæmorrhage, so fatal, proceeded from a perforation in the right lingual artery, or of one of its branches. The reader is referred for more copious particulars of the life of Mr. Cooper to The Lancet of August 31, 1850; August 27th, and September the 10th, 1853.

FOOKES, ROBERT, of Stalbridge, Dorset, in Cambridge-street, Hyde-park, on the 1st of December, aged 52. The immediate cause of his death was an epileptic attack, but his llness commenced several months before, with fever, brought on by the fatigues of the previous winter. He had had, during a period of thirty years, a very extensive and laborious practice, for which he was in every respect—physically, morally, and intellectually—well qualified. He was a man of great vigour and energy, scrupulously honourable in all the affairs of life, and open-hearted and generous in the extreme; and these qualities were brightened by a truly Christian spirit, which adorned his whole life. No wonder, therefore, that such a man was beloved and respected. Rich and poor alike sought him in their troubles; and he rarely failed, either as the skilful practitioner or sympathising friend, to alleviate their distresses. No man ever more thoroughly endeared himself to all around him, for he was never weary of doing good; and it may be safely predicted that all classes will long venerate his memory as their physician, their benefactor, and their friend.

BANK OF DEPOSIT,

AND

7, ST. MARTIN'S PLACE, TRAFALGAR SQUARE, LONDON.

Established A.D. 1844.

CAPITAL STOCK, £100,000.

This Association is composed of two distinct and separate branches:—the one comprising the business of a BANK OF DEPOSIT for the Investment of Capital; the other, the ordinary transactions of LIFE ASSURANCE.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

The object of this Department is to afford a safe and easy mode of Investment, which secures equal advantages to the Savings of the Provident and the Capital of the Affluent; and to effect important improvements in the present system of Monetary economy, both as regards the security afforded to the Public, and the rate of interest realized.

The plan of this Association differs materially from that of ordinary Banks, or Savings Banks, in the mode of investing Capital—ultimate profit and security being the main objects regarded; the Board of Management principally employ their Funds in Loans upon vested Life Interests and other similar securities, and in the purchase of well-secured Reversions, a class of securities which, although not immediately convertible, it is well known yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the most perfect safety.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The present rate of Interest is five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly; and the Board of Management confidently anticipate, that a careful and judicious selection from securities of the above description, will enable them to continue this rate to the Depositors.

INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Money is received daily, between the hours of TEN and FOUR o'clock. Investment Accounts may be opened with capital of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of Depositors.

A Stock Voucher, signed by two Directors, is given for each sum deposited.

INTEREST.

The INTEREST is payable in JANUARY and JULY, and for the convenience of parties residing at a distance may be received at the Branch Offices, or through Country Bankers, without expense.

PRIZE MEDAL, GREAT EXHIBITION, 1851.

Chicken Broth, 1*s.* 9*d.* per pint, 1*s.* per half-pint; Beef Tea, 1*s.* 9*d.* per pint, 1*s.* per half-pint; Mutton Broth, 1*s.* 3*d.* per pint, 9*d.* per half-pint; Invalid Turtle, 5*s.* per case; Tendons of Veal, 3*s.* per pound.

These delicacies contain the greatest amount of nutriment in the smallest possible space, and being in canisters hermetically sealed, they will remain fresh for an unlimited period. They are prepared with the express view of supplying the Invalid with agreeable, nutritious, and easily-digested food, at a few minutes' notice, and of preventing the tedious delays which occur in procuring and preparing ordinary articles of food, during which the appetite of the Invalid frequently becomes so palled as to reject it altogether. It is merely necessary to open the canister and warm the contents, when they are ready for immediate use. They form a useful and excellent diet for young children.

Examination of a Sample of Chicken Broth purchased of RITCHIE & M'CALL.—"The contents of this canister were perfectly unchanged, and in as fresh a state as though the Broth had been recently prepared."—The Lancet, March 27, 1852.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

Persons assured for the whole term of Life, for £100 and upwards, will have an addition made to their Policies every fifth year (instead of every seventh, as heretofore), or an equivalent reduction will be made in the future payments of Premium, at the option of the Assured.

Policies may also be effected for the whole term of Life by payments yearly or half-yearly, also by a limited number of yearly payments, a mode of assurance which originated with this Company in 1816.

Assurances for short periods may now be effected in this Office at considerably reduced rates of premium.

The next valuation will be made at Christmas, 1854; and Policies effected before that date will participate in proportion to the time they may then have been in force.

The following statement of Sums paid on various Policies (printed with the consent of the Representatives of the Claimants) will, it is submitted, confirm the very satisfactory result of the principles on which the Company's business is conducted, and exhibit the Bonus or Additions which attached thereto respectively—viz.,

This Company recognises the services of the Medical Profession by a Fee in all cases, and a Commission on Assurances coming through their influence.

NEW SYSTEM OF LOANS,

Superseding Building Societies,

On the Security, or for the Purchase or Erection of Property, on an entirely new plan, the Payments to cease in the event of the death of the Borrower, and the Property to be handed over to his Family or Representatives free and unencumbered.

This Company enables persons, without speculation, to invest large or small sums, at a higher rate of interest than can be obtained from the public funds, and on as secure a basis.

INVESTMENTS.

Money intended for investment only, is received on deposit, at interest, after the rate of five per cent. per annum, at the Offices of the Company, between the hours of ten and four.

MODE OF INVESTMENT.

The plan of the Company is to advance its funds upon the security of freehold or leasehold property, in connexion with a life assurance, repayable by equal quarterly instalments extending over a period of years, and thus superseding building societies, by providing for the ceasing of the payments in the event of the death of the borrower.

This mode of investment, while it offers the greatest advantages to the public, affords to its members a perfect security, and a higher rate of interest than can be obtained elsewhere.

The Directors have already advanced a large sum of money under their peculiar system, and the experience of eighteen months has proved that there is no limit to their operations. The utmost care is taken to select first-class securities on which there is no risk, and that the value of the property offered for security exceeds the amount advanced.

Policies never disputed in the absence of wilful fraud; they are a sure and safe provision for settlements, renewal of leases, security of debts, &c.

The Medical Attendant consulted as the Medical Adviser and Examiner of the Society, and awarded a fee of £2 2*s.*, when the sum assured amounts to £250, and £1 1*s.* when under that sum. The Medical Practitioner also receives for business introduced by him the usual commission of ten per cent. on the first payment, and five per cent. on the payments of subsequent years.

The Society also claims the support of the Medical Profession on the following grounds:

1. For several years the "Medical, Legal, and General," was the only MUTUAL Life Assurance Society connected with the Medical Profession.

2. The rates are lower than those of any other Medical Life Office.

3. This is the only MUTUAL Life Assurance Society now actually declaring its bonuses once every year.

4. Persons desirous of assuring Diseased or Rejected Lives will find that from the experience acquired by this Society it is enabled to accept such lives at rates both equitable and safe.

5. From the outset the expenses of management have been kept within the narrowest limit consistent with the efficient working of the establishment.

Annuities, endowments, and every form of assurance contingent upon Life transacted at moderate rates.

SECOND DIVISION OF PROFITS. 1853.

Report of the Annual General Meeting for the Twelfth Year of the Medical, Invalid, and General Life Assurance Society.

The Annual General Meeting of this Society was held at the Chief Office of the Society, 25, Pall Mall, London, on Thursday, the 24th day of November, 1853; Alfred Waddilove, D.C.L., in the chair; when the accounts of the Society for the twelve months ending 30th September, 1853, (being the Twelfth Year of the Society's operations,) and the Report of the Auditors thereon, having been read and duly received, the following Report by the Directors, showing the amount of business done during the last year, and the annual progress of the Society, from its establishment to the 30th September, 1853, was also read.

"The Directors, in presenting their Report to the Shareholders on the present occasion, have not only to give an account of the progress of the Society during the past year, but have also to bring before the meeting the results of the Valuation made of the Assets and Liabilities of the Society, in order to determine the Surplus, if any, which may be applicable as a Bonus to the Shareholders and Assured.

"During the past official year, no less than 922 new Policies have been issued for Assurances, amounting to £402,176 4s. 4d., and yielding Annual Premiums to the extent of £16,934 7s. 3d.

"This is a very large amount of business, though, in comparing it with the previous year, the increase is less obvious than it appears when properly estimated. The business of the previous year was unusually large, and we could scarcely hope that it would be exceeded in the year just completed: but from the following Table it becomes at once evident that the new business of the last is largely in excess of every other year:—

Year.	New Policies issued.	Sums Assured by New Policies.	Annual Premiums on New Policies.
1842	130	£55,245 1 0	£1,882 13 7
1843	206	87,830 16 11	4,992 18 6
1844	197	80,415 8 6	4,120 4 3
1845	258	103,014 11 0	5,563 17 0
1846	190	83,700 14 5	4,985 8 5
1847	313	113,542 4 8	4,237 3 0
1848	412	124,458 17 9	4,980 2 8
1849	475	201,712 15 6	7,496 0 6
1850	569	213,409 16 11	9,163 13 7
1851	618	263,162 1 5	10,527 17 2
1852	778	361,300 8 4	15,480 17 10
1853	922	402,176 4 4	16,934 7 3
Total.....	5074	£2,090,029 0 9	£90,365 3 9

"In regard to this continued increase in the business of this Society, it is satisfactory to be enabled to state that it is not due to any accidental or transient cause, but seems to be general and permanent, as shown by the increased number of Policies which has arisen in all the principal localities where the business of the Society is conducted.

"Although the claims from deaths in the past exceed that of any preceding year, such a result is only what ought to be expected, from the rapidly augmented amount of Assurances in force; the new business of the two years immediately preceding the present one exceeds that of any other four years, and actually considerably exceeds that of the first seven years of the Society. An increased number of deaths is therefore the natural and expected result of the greater magnitude of the Society's transactions.

"The period has now arrived when, according to the Deed of Settlement, it is necessary to have a Valuation of the Assets and Liabilities of the Society made, in order to see whether there be any and what surplus to distribute as and by way of Bonus to the Shareholders and Assured.

"From the Actuary's Report now on the table, it will be found that the surplus of Assets and Liabilities will enable the meeting to declare a Bonus of Eleven Shillings per Share to each Shareholder, making, with the Bonus of Five Shillings per Share set apart at last division of Profits in 1848, a total Bonus of Sixteen Shillings on each original Share of £2 in the Society.

"In terms of the Deed of Settlement, as two-thirds of the gross surplus must be divided amongst the Assured on the Participating Scale, that sum will enable the meeting to declare a Bonus, of which the following are examples, and which cannot fail to be very satisfactory to the Assured:—

"However satisfactory the progress of this Society may have hitherto appeared, there can be no doubt that the lessened expenses of management in relation to its now greatly increased revenue, must have the effect of producing a much larger surplus, and consequently even larger Bonuses, in future years.

"The Directors retiring by rotation are George Gun Hay, Esq., and James Whishaw, Esq.; and the Auditors retiring by rotation are John Stirling Taylor, Esq., and Joseph Whitehouse, Esq., all of whom are eligible, and offer themselves for re-election."

The Directors and Auditors retiring from office having been duly elected without opposition, the several Reports were adopted, and the usual Votes of Thanks given.

Prospectuses containing very full Tables, Forms of Proposal, and every other information, will be forwarded, postage free, on application to any of the Society's Agents, or to the Secretary, at the Chief Office, 25, PALL MALL, LONDON.

A Division of Profits will be made in the year 1858, and at the end of every succeeding five years.

THE MEDICAL BENEVOLENT COLLEGE has been founded to provide—

1st. An ASYLUM for duly qualified Medical Men and their Widows.

2ndly. A SCHOOL for the Sons of duly qualified Medical Men.

3rdly. To give power to the Council to grant Annuities or occasional pecuniary assistance to distressed Members of the Profession or their Families, who may be eligible for admission into the College, as the Funds of the College may from time to time permit.

There shall be a CHAPEL for Divine Worship, according to the ritual of the Church of England.

The preliminaries that delay the execution of great undertakings, and that have not failed to impede the progress of the Medical Benevolent College, have been overcome. The foundation-stone has been laid by the Noble President, under the acclamations of thousands of spectators, who proved their zeal in the cause by a liberality worthy of themselves and the occasion; the first contract for a large part of the Building, comprising the offices for the School and Dwellings for Four Pensioners, has recently been entered into, and we may safely look forward to the ensuing Spring as the time when the portion which is now to be commenced will have risen above the ground, and give promise of speedy completion.

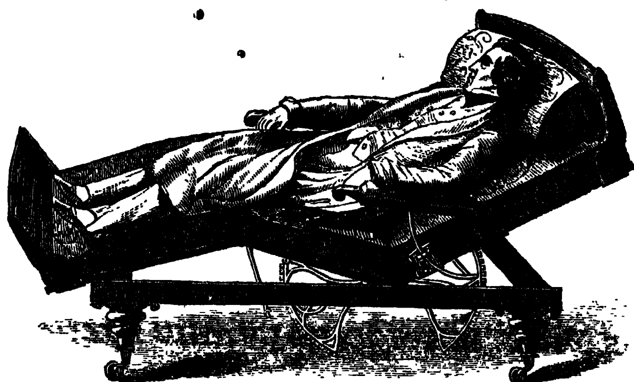

But for large and hearty co-operation on all sides thus much could not have been achieved, even by the indomitable perseverance and energy that has been brought to bear; yet it is necessary to remind the friends of the Institution of the peculiar and unexpected changes which have influenced the entire commercial world since the first estimate for the College was made, and which cannot but react upon this individual undertaking. The higher value of labour as well as material has already greatly added

MOVEABLE ARTIFICIAL EYES,

MODELLED IN ENAMEL,

BY M. AUGUSTE BOISSONNEAU,

OCULARIST,

8, South Crescent, Bedford Square, London.

Knight and Officer of the Royal Orders of the Oaken Crown of the Low Countries; of the Merit of Denmark; of the Red Eagle of Prussia; of Albert the Valorous, of Saxony; Merit, of Wirtemburg; the Golden Eagle of Merit, of Prussia. Member of several Medical Societies.

Entrusted with the Ocularistic Department of the Hospitals of Paris, Liverpool, Manchester, Edinburgh, and London (in London, St. Thomas's and the Royal Free Hospital), and in those of the principal cities of the Western States.

To make appointment with M. Boissonneau, either in London, Manchester, Dublin, or Edinburgh (which cities he alternately visits to supply hospitals), patients are requested to write, beforehand, to No. 8, South Crescent, Bedford Square, London; or (for poor patients) Royal Free Hospital, Gray's-inn Road, London.

IMPROVEMENTS OF THE ARTIFICIAL EYE.

Making my artificial eyes expressly for each patient, according to nature, and following a theoretical method of appropriation, which multiplies its forms ad infinitum in adjusting them to all the pathological varieties without the necessity of any preparatory surgical operation, the personal presence of the patient by me is indispensable. It may be understood that in acting thus, my researches for appropriation become long and laborious; but my efforts to restore the harmony of the face in such a manner, that it is impossible to distinguish nature from art. My Artificial Eyes possess a high degree of expression, and perform all the natural movements. They are applied by patients themselves without any pain being produced, and even children wear them with ease.

The artificial eyes that are procured in trade, present no individual state of appropriation; their compressed oval shape has no relation of conformity with the round form of the natural bulb of the eye. They are, consequently, painful in use, cause distortion of the face, and preparatory surgical operations are generally necessary to admit of their being applied; whilst those made by myself are hemispherical capsules, with sinuous circumference, which, by the exactness of their appropriation, adapt themselves perfectly without occasioning the slightest disagreeable sensation.

A most important advantage of my method is, unquestionably, the well-demonstrated possibility of applying the artificial eye upon voluminous ocular bulbs; therefore, the surgeons are requested to be careful to preserve the volume of the organ complete, unless, however, it should exceed that of the sound eye. The plastic construction of my artificial eyes renders them convenient to use, and gives them a movement strictly in accordance with the natural eye.

At the present time, art completely dissimulates a defect too often presenting an obstacle to a career, which, by this restoration, may, under all circumstances, become prosperous.

People supposing that an artificial eye, such as are sold in shops up to the present time, may be procured of me, I have frequently been written to beforehand, to be informed of the price; it becomes necessary in this place to observe, that to give the best appropriative conditions to my labours, the first eye is always formed according to nature; but the least or greatest individual difficulties presented by this study, renders it impossible for me to fix a price before having examined the subject myself; a first artificial eye made in this manner is then matter of art beyond every other manufactured article, the price of which might be fixed beforehand; besides, it becomes a valuable model to the patient, from which he may at all times procure copies, at prices commonly varying from one to four guineas.

FOR EXPORTATION into the Colonies, I make my Artificial Eyes from nature, by means of correspondence and special instruction. For this purpose, methodical collections have been made.
